GOTCH DOWNS HACK IN FAST TIME

Iowan Champion Took Two Falls in 19 Minutes, 50 Seconds—Crowd Claims That the Russian Quit Before Gotch's Terrible Toe Hold—Loser Says He Had a Sore Knee at the Start.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—The wrestling championship of the world remains at Humboldt, Iowa. It took Frank Gotch, who made that town famous, just 19 minutes and 50 seconds to topple over George Hackenschmidt, who has this twice failed to wrest the world's highest wrestling honors from the sturdy Iowan.

Hack Beaten from the Start.
Gotch secured the first fall with a reverse body lock in 14 minutes and 15 seconds. The second fall required exactly 5 minutes and 35 seconds. According to the general comment, Hackenschmidt entered the ring a little overconfident, was master of the situation at every stage. The second fall looked as if the so-called "Lion from across the Atlantic" simply quit. It was a rather pitiful spectacle, Gotch held a levee just outside of the platform, while Hackenschmidt held another one on the grandstand.

Rather Easy for Frank.
"What do I think of it? Well, it was rather easy, wasn't it? Frank really can wrestle some, though I can't say very much, as Frank is really the more important member of the family," all. "Thank everybody for the nice way they stood by my husband."

Didn't Expect It So Easy.
Gotch said: "Honest, I didn't think it would be so easy. I expected to win, but not with the ease with which I did. I had not been in the ring three minutes when I knew Hack was even less to be feared than he was three years ago."

Hack Has Nothing to Say.
"I have nothing to say," the defeated Russian grunted.
Gotch made his way to his dressing room with the assistance of his broad shoulders and a squad of police. He waded through the crowd like a big Atlantic liner going through a fleet of tug.

Hack in Tears.
In his dressing room Hackenschmidt broke down and cried, and with tears said:
"I was in no condition to wrestle. Two weeks ago I wrenched my left knee. My trainers told me I could go in and wrestle without injuring it. But we had scarcely got to work when Gotch began to pull and twist my left leg. I soon realized that I was in no condition to continue the match. I am not a quitter. Neither do I desire to charge that I was not treated squarely. My defeat is due entirely to the injury. I feel deeper than words can tell the loss of this match. However, I did my best."

Hack Lacking in Gamesness.
Dr. Roller said: "A game man than Hackenschmidt might have continued this game. There are some who say that he was injured. His condition now will show that. However, I have seen wrestlers who were suffering from injuries fully as severe as those of Hack go through their matches until it was no longer possible for them to continue."
Abe Arends, as soon as he could make his way to the press stand, told the reporters that when Gotch secured the toe lock Hack cried: "Let go! It's hurting!" and fell flat, frothing at the mouth.

GOTCH'S HOME TOWN DANCED WITH JOY.
Humboldt Citizens Cheer at News of Their Champion's Victory.

Humboldt, Iowa, Sept. 4.—Humboldt literally danced for joy when the announcement of Frank Gotch's victory reached here this afternoon. A large crowd gathered in the downtown streets, and when the "Lion from across the Atlantic" came over the wire at the telegraph office the entire populace of the town cheered. Gotch's neighbors shouted their delight with the news, and many of them really danced at the "announcement of the victory dawned upon them."

Russian's Showing Pitiful.
The Russian's showing was pitiful. The crowd decreed that he had quit, but the defeated challenger, through cupidity, asserted that he entered the arena with a wrenched knee, on which Gotch worked and speedily reversed to a state of comparative helplessness.

What Referee Smith Said.
Referee Smith is authority for the statement that when Gotch secured the fatal toe lock, which won the match, Hackenschmidt cried out "Don't hurt my toe!" and a second later "Don't break my leg!" and fell with his shoulders to the mat, frothing at the mouth.

Hackenschmidt Like Jeffries.
Whether there be any merit to Hackenschmidt's claim that his knee was injured in bed, or whether he was injured by the challenger was in no state mental-ly to enter into a grueling contest, Hackenschmidt was unprepared before he entered the arena. Whether it was from worry over the injured knee or his fretting over the match generally cannot be said. Little Jeffries, however, the Russian Lion spent a sleepless night before the battle, although his trainers tried every means to put him at ease. They had his room with John Koch, a German, and one of Koch's duties was to sing songs of the fatherland to the Russian and try to soothe him. But Hackenschmidt would not be calmed. After trying vainly for several hours to go to sleep he arose and pleaded with his trainers to give him drugs that would make him sleep. They refused to do this and Hackenschmidt retired to fret the night away.

The Lion Heartbroken.
Hackenschmidt was heartbroken over the result of the bout. In his dressing room for half an hour he sat up his wrestling garb, crying and refusing the proffered attentions and cheering words of his trainers.

The Russian Down First.
The story of the actual wrestling that was done is soon told. Tims was called at 3:15 o'clock. The contest lasted five minutes and 35 seconds, and for five minutes tugged at each other's necks, wrists and arms. After making several rake passes at Hackenschmidt's knees, Gotch finally obtained a knee hold at the end of eight and a half minutes. Once the Iowan's massive hands were fastened on Hackenschmidt's left leg the Russian went down. He struggled out of that and a subsequent hold of the same kind, and then became the aggressor. At 10 minutes Hackenschmidt secured a body hold and put Gotch to the mat. But he was down only an instant.

Gotch Shows His Speed.
After 14 minutes of wrestling, Gotch started Hackenschmidt downward with a knee hold, faked a crotch and then quickly worked the Russian into a half Nelson. They struck the mat together, head to head. Then Gotch pivoted on his opponent's stomach, clamped on a reverse body hold and the first fall was over in 14:15.

The First Five Minutes of the Second Fall was a Repetition of That Period in the First. But suddenly Gotch reached down with his right hand, grasped Hackenschmidt's left ankle and unbalanced the Lion.

The Finish.
While Hackenschmidt was trying to retain his equilibrium, Gotch struck the Lion's injured leg with his right knee and the Russian crumpled into a heap upon the canvas. Instantly Gotch was on him, his powerful right firmly locked upon the under man's left toe. Hackenschmidt screamed a couple of times, rolled over on his shoulders and gave up. The time of this fall was 5:35 1-5.

When They Met Before.
The men met once before in Chicago on the night of April 3, 1908, wrestling for the championship of the world. After two hours and three minutes of desperate defense, Hackenschmidt admitted himself defeated.

Murphy's Gelding Won in Straight Heat—Stable Now Has $50,000 Winnings.

T. C., driven by Murphy, in straight heats. The finishes in all three heats were close. In the first heat Gordon Todd, driven by Geers, led until within 100 yards of the wire, when he was overtaken and almost fell. R. T. C., passing him and winning by a length by Chatty Direct. The second heat was won by R. T. C. by a hard drive and but by a few feet. The final heat was neck and neck to the wire, Gordon Todd breaking just before the finish. The division of the purse gives R. T. C. $5,000, Chatty Direct $2,500, Gordon Todd $1,500 and Louis Forest $1,000.

The 216 trot went into six heats and was not finished until after sunset. Peter Red, with Geers up, showed the greatest endurance and took three firsts after finishing fifth in the first heat. The best time was by the winner in the second heat, 2:11 1-2. Sue D. and Eva Tanguay finished second and third.

There were but three entries in the 204 pace. The Abbe, driven by Geers, taking all three heats, with 2:04 3-5 in the first heat the fastest.

The winning of the Charter Oak today by R. T. C. brings the winnings of Tom Murphy's stable for the season up to nearly $50,000.

There were between 40,000 and 50,000 at the opening of the fair today, the grand circuit races being of course the main drawing card.

AMERICAN HYDROPLANE TRIMS ENGLISH CHALLENGER.
Dixie IV Easily Takes First Round in International Motor Boat Races.

Huntington, L. I., Sept. 4.—In a decidedly one-sided race, Dixie IV, a 600 horsepower hydroplane of the most pronounced type, today won the first of the series of motor boat races between England and the United States for the world's championship trophy, known as the Harcourt cup.

Dixie never once showed her maximum speed in the four rounds of the triangular course of about 20 miles on Huntington bay. She easily distanced the greatly feared Pioneer, owned by the Duke of Westminster, a 400 horsepower boat, beating the Englishman by 55 seconds. Of the three English boats, three American boats, only four finished, and three of them were Americans.

LARNED TENNIS CHAMPION FOR FIFTH TIME.
Defends His Title Against McLaughlin, Winning Straight Sets.

Newport, R. I., Sept. 4.—William A. Larned of Summit, N. J., is national lawn tennis champion for another year. This has grown to be a familiar phrase, to followers of the game, and was brought up to date today by Larned's victory over Maurice McLaughlin of San Francisco, the young player who on Saturday last won the right to challenge former Champion Beals C. Wright of Boston in the final round of the all-comers' tournament.

The second today were 6-4, 6-2, 6-2. This is the fifth successive year that Larned has won the championship, and the fourth year that he has defended that he has been a prominent figure on the courts. He has won two championships' trophies and now has one leg on a third cup.

MOOSUP WON TWO.
Took Both Labor Day Games from Tri-Village by Same Score, 5 to 1.

Moosup won two games from Tri-Village Labor day, both by the score of 5 to 1, the morning game at Moosup, the afternoon contest at Wildwood park. Houlihan pitched the morning game for Tri-Village and Dennison for Moosup. In the afternoon McGovern of Providence worked for Tri-Village and Harland for Moosup. Shaw caught in both games for Dayville while Brunedon did the receiving for Moosup in both.

DANNY LIKES MORGAN.
Murphy Picks Cy as the Best Right-Hander in American League.

Danny Murphy is strong for Cy Morgan as the right hander in the American league with the most stuff of any pitcher. Dan says that when Morgan was with Boston he was the most feared twirler of any in the Taylor band. Dan assures that Cy now has the confidence necessary to go straight ahead and win the vast majority of his games.

"Cy has just rounded to in the proper fashion at the proper time," said the Hitting Harp, "and we are a darn sight better off on that account than any time during the season."

"Cy is a great pitcher, and if he would only realize how strong a twirler he is and get all the confidence that he needs, he'd make all of them sit up and take notice."
